Obituary

SUMIT KHAITAN (FAN OF MR. IRRFAN KHAN) 3 Days ago

One of the most versatile actor of indian cinema in recent time. The void created due to the loss of this great actor will always be felt by the industry and his fans. He was fighter in true sense and struggled a lot to make his place in the industry as a prominent actor. May his soul rest in peace and the god give strength to his family to bear the loss.
